MANHOOD: How Lost, How Restored. Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT Has given universal satisfaction during the fourteen years it has been introduced into the United States. After being tried by millions, it has been proclaimed the pain destroyer of the world. Pain cannot be where this liniment is applied. If used as directed it cannot and never has failed in a single instance. For colds, coughs and influenza, it can't be beat. One 40 cent bottle will cure all the above, besides being useful in every family for sudden accidents, such as burns, cuts, scalds, insect stings, &c. It is perfectly innocent to take internally, and can be given to the oldest person or youngest child. Price 40 and 80 cents a bottle.—Office, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York. Sold by all Druggists. Oct 20-1m.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—A Druggist said the other day, you have no need to advertise your Porous Plasters, for every one sold certainly causes a dozen to be sold, and a dozen sells a gross, and so on. You will not be able to supply the demand soon. But we can supply a thousand yards a day.

AFFECTION OF THE SPINE CURED.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 11, 1861.

Messrs. THOS. ALLCOCK & Co.—Please send with dispatch, twelve dozen Allcock's Porous Plasters. Our daily experience confirms their very superior excellence. At this moment of writing, a man applies for one, who, by entanglement in the shaft of machinery, had both his legs broken, spine severely injured, and was for nearly a year entirely helpless. This man found relief very soon by the application of a plaster to his spine. He was soon enabled to work, and now he labors as well as ever. He would cheerfully pay $5 for a single plaster if they could not be had at a lower rate. I am surprised that surgeons do not make use of these perforated plasters, to the exclusion of all others, as their flexibility and adhesiveness are greatly in advance of all other plasters with which I am acquainted; while the perforations peculiar to them rendered them greatly superior to all others for ordinary surgical uses. Knowing the Plasters to be so useful, I have no scruples that my sentiments should be known. J. W. JOHNSON, M. D.

NO RECOGNITION.—The Southern people have given up all expectations of being recognized and it is equally difficult to RECOGNIZE NORTHERNERS whose heads of gray, yellow, white, brown, or red hair, have SURRENDERED THEIR COLORS under the wonder-working influence of CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE, which plant permanently in their stead such blacks and brown, as nature might mistake for her own. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. Oct 20—1m

THE KEY STONE RAIL ROAD.

Another train has come,
Uncle Toby's up to time;
Travel-worn and weary,
From his home so lonely
In the shadow of the mountain.

A motley crew are brought together,
By the modern car of progress,
To do the work of reconstruction,
At popular Election Station
On the Key Stone Rail Road!
There is democratic man with his papers,
Looking, watching, seeing after soldiers!
Votes them at home, within the constitution;
Not when away on foreign travel.
Abolition man the same, clever to the solders!
Votes them at home and wherever they'll vote
"Sambo!"
Clever, very, very clever to the soldiers!
Candidates with pockets full of money,
Fawning, very anxious, very clever;
Running to and fro, knowing every body;
Smiling, bowing, scraping to the soldiers!
Sending kisses home to cherub (dirty) babies!
And remembrance to their mother!
There's "Old Fogy," sweating, puffing like a porMissed the train at Hickory Station; [poise;
Was not like "the State agent," "up to time."
There's the Miser, starves himself for treasure,
And saves the scrapings of the mushpot!
See young Solon, form erect,
And frizzly moustache, coaxed out by bear's grease,
Mind bending 'neath the musty legal lore of ages!
There's Orator Puff, inflated with turning words,
Well nigh to bursting, spoiling for a speech;
There is Galen with his specs, pockits full of physic;
He'll mend broken limbs and attend to patients;
Merchants, with hands soft as ladies;
Clerks, spruce and glossy, tender as young turkeys;
See grave "preacher" with white neck tie,
Looking after members; telling them how to vote;
Better be at home with Bible, studying better
Let him do his work and scamper. [things;
There's the Gambler with his cards; a Shylock
Seeking some poor gander, just to pluck him.
There is "Soap-stick" from his den, brim full of whisky,
Eyes red as fire, nose gently tip'd with scarlet,
Rushing to and fro, reeling, shouting for the "Union,"
Feeling upward for the earth, and searching for his rights.
There! he has found them in the gutter.
Debauchees, lep'rous with pollution. [ven;
Too low for loathing, fit for neither earth nor heaMen who never go to church, or read the Bible;
Take no papers, pay nothing to the preachers—
Never say their prayers, fish and hunt on Sundays,
Loungers in bar-rooms, and on tavern porches;
Perfumed with smoke; bespattered with tobacco;
Greasy, dirty fellows, from the forge and furnace,
From the mines and from the oil wells,
Beardless boys, (not twenty,) too large for their
These the men of nerve and muscle, [clothing;
The sinew of the State, the safeguard of the nation;
There the virtuous, intelligent, honest voters;
Whose tender hands steady the car of progress;
These the architects of a nation's fortune;
The great master builders, sturdy laborers,
Who, with picks and shovels, clubs and weapons,
Do the work of re-construction at Election Station,
On the Key Stone Rail Road!
Hear the rumbling! See, the train is coming!
Gently, gently moves the car of progress,
At Election Station on the Key Stone Rail Road!
Hark! there are voices, din, confusion,
Fuss among the cab-men, porters, runners—
"Hack, sir!" "Cab, sir!" "Come to our house, Union House!"
"National Hotel," "Democratic House," "Lincoln House,"
"Constitutional Union," "Come to our house, don't go there!"
"Copperheads!" "Secesh!" "Come to our house, do go there!"
"Black snakes, Woolly heads!" "Ours the Soldiers' house!"
"No, ours the soldiers' house! We're the soldiers' friends."
Louder, louder, swells the clamor,
As a storm breaks o'er the mountains,
Rushing down the darkened gorges,
Tearing up the forests, filling the air with fragments,
As the voice of mighty thunder,
As the sound of rushing waters.
Are the heavens falling? Is the earth a-crumbling?
Mercy! the avalanche is right upon us!
"SOLDIERS!" "SOLDIERS!" "SOLDIERS!"
So gently, softly moves the car of progress,
At Election Station, on the Key Stone Rail Road;
In the "work of reconstruction."
If the train e'er leaves this station
Uncle Toby will be "up to time."
Now he's weary and will sleep awhile
At his home so lonely,
In the shadow of the mountain.

UNCLE TOBY.

Cumberland Valley, Nov. 17.

THE New York Herald says: "The order of General McDowell, commanding the Department of California, forbidding the transportation of arms across our frontiers into Mexico, has caused much dissatisfaction among the friends of the Mexican Republic in our Pacific States, and has led to correspondence between the General and Mr. Godoy, President Juarez's Consul in San Francisco. The Consul prays for a withdrawal of the order, maintaining that it must work entirely in favor of the imperialists, as they hold all the Pacific seaports and as shipments of arms by sea are not forbidden. General McDowell, in his reply, states that the shipments by sea as well as by land are intended by his order to be prohibited, and that instructions to this effect have been given by him to the San Francisco Collector. He also regrets that his official duties require him to pursue a course which is thought by the Consul to be inimical to the republican cause in Mexico, which he says has his warmest sympathies, and he adds that it is with pain he replies that he cannot withdraw the order alluded to.

Two men on a raft were recently discovered off Cape Hatteras, N. C. They said they were all that survived out of their party of fourteen who escaped from the steamship Republic, sunk on the Georgia coast on the 25th ult., their companions having either been washed off or having jumped off in the delirium produced by their sufferings. It will be remembered that four boats and a raft put off from the Republic. Three of the boats have been heard from, all those on board of them having finally been rescued: but a more terrible fate, it seems, was reserved for those on the raft. The fourth boat remains unaccounted for.

SOME recent English statistics are instructive to the friends of temperance. In the last twelve years the consumption of beer and wine has increased more rapidly than in proportion to the population, while the consumption of distilled spirits has largely fallen off, showing that the slightly exhilarating liquors are superseding those more decidedly intoxicating. And the change is more perceptible in the improvement of the public morals, and the decrease in drunkenness. Even in Ireland, beer is supplanting the terrible whisky and shindies and broken heads are getting to be strangely uncommon.

MAJOR-GEN. Joseph E. Johnson, late of the rebel army, and Mrs. Johnson are on a visit to New York.

THE ALARM IN CANADA.

Fears Of an Attack on Toronto.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A special dispatch to the Herald, dated at Toronto, C. W., to-day, has the following:

"Intense excitement prevails here. Yesterday the Government placed troops at the disposal of the Mayor, and informed him that it was probable an early attack would be made on the city, with instructions to take as many prisoners as possible.

"On Tuesday night Col. Lowry's house was pelted with brickbats."

To-day's Leader says: "Local preparations have been made, such as the posting of troops and patrols, doubling the police force, &c. It is said the horses of the royal artillery were actually harnessed and held in readiness on the night previous. Many discharged American soldiers are in the city. The attack is nightly looked for."

The Banks Arming their Employees.

MONTREAL, Nov. 13.—Our banking institutions have resolved to arm their employees, and the money brokers propose establishing a night patrol.

A company of Chasseurs Canadiens is under orders from the frontier. Hundreds are waiting to go.

The Minerve states that a new militia organization is under consideration.

The Montreal Herald of Wednesday has a letter addressed to the Provisional Secretary, by B. Devlin, Esq., President of the Montreal St. Patrick's Society, in the course of which he says:

"The St. Patrick's Society, speaking for the Irish Catholics of Montreal, and, indeed, in this matter, for their Catholic countrymen throughout Canada, cannot admit that Orangemen, as such, are entitled to any mark of confidence at the hands of the Government, or that they should be regarded as more reliable or loyal subjects of her Majesty than we and others of a different religious denomination.

"We desire to assure you and the Government of which you are a member, that we ardently desire to cultivate the friendship of our Protestant fellow-citizens, that, here, where our lot has cast us together, we should continue to live in peace, harmony and friendship with each other, fully sensible as we are of the fact that the future welfare and prosperity of the country in which we have now the happiness to live demands, as a national obligation, that here we should bury, and forever, all past differences, and only be rivals in works of public usefulness and true Christian charity."

Fenian Excitement Abating.

TORONTO, Nov. 17.—The Fenian excitement of the last two days has apparently disappeared, and a general feeling now prevails that all necessary precautions have been taken to prevent lawless depredations by members of the Brotherhood.

Mexico--Gen. Logan.

The New York Commercial calls attention to certain sentiments uttered by Gen. Logan, the newly appointed Minister to the Mexican Republic, as indicating the policy he is likely to pursue. In the public reception accorded to our Generals at Cooper Institute on the 7th of June, General Logan said:

"The little gentleman in Mexico ought to be notified some morning very early, just before breakfast, that it will be equally as pleasant to the people of the United States if he would retire a little further than that country. But in speaking of Mexico, I do not want you to understand that it is my desire in any way to encourage what is known here as an emigrant society to Mexico. If we in the United States do not want Maximillian to remain in Mexico, in God's name let us have nerve and manliness to tay, 'Sir, you have got to get out of here."

Again, in his Brooklyn speech, on the 3d inst., Gen. Logan said if he were President, he "would order the French out of Mexico in a hurry, and he believed they would go."

THE CHOLERA IN EUROPE.—The United States Government is kept fully advised on the subject of the cholera abroad, through its consuls. The latest dispatches show that the epidemic is disappearing from Palermo, where it has been more virulent than at any other place on the Mediterranean. The disease is evidently now going inland and spreading over the Peninsula. It has crossed the frontiers of Spain and passed into Portugal. The cholera has completely ceased at Constantinople, also at Galatz and other parts of the United Principalities of Moldavia and Wallachia.

A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce writes from Jacksonville, Florida, October 30th:

"There is a large negro garrison here, and yesterday there was a tremendous riot, during which several of the officers and men were killed and wounded, the officers shooting the men, and the men officers. One of the negro soldiers was undergoing a certain punishment, when he was rescued by his comrades, and in the attempt to force order by the officers the riot originated.

THE MINISTER TO MEXICO.—The French Courrier, at New York, affects to be indignant at the appointment of General Logan as United States Minister to the Republic of Mexico, and pronounces it a "provocation." It adds in substance, that the French troops now will not leave Mexico. France is allied with Mexico, now, right or wrong and will maintain the alliance.—Baltimore Sun.

FROM MEXICO.

Capture of Monterey by the Liberals---Military Movements.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 16.—The Brownsville Mexican Republican extra of November 7th, announces the capture of Monterey by the Liberals, under Pavis, and also says that no reinforcements had arrived from Brownsville. Merchants who have arrived here say that a large French force was landing at Badgad. The extra says Gen. Pedro Mendoti had arrived and joined Corda, before Matamoras, with 1,800 Liberals, and had previously surprised and utterly destroyed an imperial garrison of 100 men, including a number of French troops.

The Liberals claim that they can take Matamoras when they please.

The Matamoras Rancho says that the Liberals offered four hours plunder of the city of Matamoras to the U. S. troops at Brownsville, if they would join them, and the Rancho warns the Federal commander to keep a sufficient force there.

The Galveston Bulletin of Nov. 12th says that Col. Jones, of Escabado's staff, had arrived there from Brownsville, and that Capt. Sinclair, of the Liberal service, formerly Lieutenant of the rebel privateer Alabama, captured an Imperial transport at the mouth of the Rio Grande, brought her to Brownsvile, and turned her over to the Federal authorities, who have placed a guard on her.

Canales is marching towards Bagdad to try to capture it.

An Imperial gunboat has passed up from Bagdad to Matamoras. A wealthy Matamoras merchant, who left there on the 7th, says there are no fears of the place being captured, as it is well fortified, and the troops are well armed and supplied, and are in good spirits.

More Indian Atrocities.

From the Colorado News, November 2.

We have the particulars of another horrid Indian massacre last Saturday, from Mr. William Fulton, a passenger by to-day's stage. A large train was attacked near Alkali Station and eight or nine wagons cut off, set on fire and the cattle hamstrung and left attached to the burning wagons. A detachment sent out from Alkali found the bodies of four men murdered, two of which were burned in a frightful manner.—The names of the victims are Mr. Garten, who was the owner of the train, his son, Mr. Gaskell, and Mr. Selby, and there was one man missing, whose name our informant did not learn.—There were about sixty or seventy-five Indians in the party, about half of whom made the attack, coming from a willow-covered island in the Platte. Mr. Fulton got the above particulars from Charley Gilman, well known in the mountains, who was with the wagons next in advance of those cut off, and narrowly escaped with his life. Mr. Fulton saw the bodies of the murdered men, and the wagons were still burning when he arrived with the detachment from Alkali.

A Train Robbed by the Broadbrim Sioux.

From a letter in the Leavenworth Times.

FORT COLLINS, October 24, 1865.—I started from Fort Laramie, a few days since, in company with four others.—Just after we had reached Pole Creek and camped, we were attacked by about one hundred and twenty-five Sioux Indians, who took our cattle, and then commenced firing into the train. We kept them off three or four hours, when the Indians were reinforced, and we had to run for life. The Indians took everthing I had. Our loss will amount to over $12,000. None of us were injured. All that saved us was our horses, which were first-rate, and which we had taken the precaution to tie to our wagons.

If you see any one who wants to make peace with the Indians, just knock him down for me.

The troops in this country make a poor attempt at fighting Indians.—More soldiers than Indians are killed.

Yours, R. E. SANDERS.

Extensive Frauds in the Oil Regions.

PITHOLE, Pa., Nov. 17.—Within the past few days the Government officials have brought to light facts which show the most extensive frauds against the Internal Revenue Department. Yesterday the officers seized wells No. 47, 54 and 76, three of the largest on the Thomas Holmdon farm. The Government claims amount to $148,000, of which $88,000 is owned by the United States petroleum company, and about $68,000 by a large operator here, who, it is alleged, last night made all his interest over to a second party.

The Government has notified the owners of the working interest in the wells not to allow any more oil to the United States company until the claim is paid.

There is much excitement here on the subject, and it is feared the bottom has not been reached.

THE leading physicians in Paris have come to the conclusion that the best preventive of cholera is rum mixed with tea, and in consequence of this an immense consumption of rum has taken place in France within the last fortnight. We hear that one house alone in Paris has sold no less than three hundred puncheons of rum in a week.—Exchange Paper.

A GOOD SELECTION.—President Johnson has made a good selection in choosing the school at the Episcopal Institute at Burlington, wherein to educate his son. But what will the radicals say to his putting his son under such influence as they pretend to think that of Bishop Hopkins is?—Montpelier Argus.

Suicide of Preston King.

It is now well ascertained that the first report regarding the suicide of Preston King, Collector of the Port of New York, is but too true. In order to make his death certain he purchased twenty-five pounds of shot which he had on his person when he took the fatal plunge. In this sudden and violent "taking off," we have another fearful check to proud ambition, admonishing its votaries of the uncertainty of human possessions, and enjoyments. Mr. King was not able for the perplexing and multitudinous duties of his office, but as the World properly remarked, "he had too much pride of character to confess his incompetency by a timely resignation, and too much sterling integrity to allow the business of his office to slide out of his control, he sunk under a burden of depressing anxieties, till his intellect tottered and reeled from its throne. Whether this source of his malady was aggravated by any personal difficulties connected with the administration of his office, has not transpired."

HARPER'S WEEKLY, a virulent abolition newspaper, forgot for an instant "loyal" interests in giving circulation to the subjoined:

"It is becoming pretty generally known that the place to buy clothes and food is Canada. A coat, costing $75 in New York, can be got in Montreal or Toronto for $30 in gold, say $44 in currency; a suit, worth $100 here, can be bought there for $45, say $67 in our money; boots, worth $16 here, can be had there for $7, say $10 of our money; and meat, poultry, and all kinds of produce can be had there at 25 @ 33 per cent. cheaper than here. The wild speculation in produce and merchandise which has so long prevailed here, and has carried everything to far higher relative figures than gold, has not yet penetrated Canada, and smart men are making their purchases for the winter in the colonial towns. In the little village of Windsor, opposite Detroit, no less than eight large clothing stores have lately been established, and are doing a large business."

Our merchants are making no more than a fair profit on their goods, probably not any more than Canadian merchants. The difference in prices between Windsor and Detroit is directly traceable to the tariff, which shuts out foreign goods and gives New England manufacturers a monopoly. For their benefit the men are taxed in in this country fifty per cent on their trowsers, and the women a larger amount on their petticoats. The cotton and woolen manufacturers of New England have been declaring enormous dividends for the past four years, and yet we are told that a protective tariff—and protection in their dictionary means prohibition—must be continued until their business is established. It is safe to say that their rapacity has already cost the people, under the present tariff, five times the amount of revenue which the government has derived from its tax on articles manufactured by them. The government has ordered six steam revenue cutters to be employed on the lakes for the prevention of smuggling. Considering the discrepancy in prices between the two countries, we think sixty-six would hardly effect the purpose. We are very sure that could a clothing store with Windsor prices be established within a mile of Chicago something else than a river and a revenue cutter and custom house official would be required to prevent very many of our citizens from being better clothed than they are.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU AGENTS IN THE SOUTH.—The Shreveport (La.) correspondent of the New York World writes as follows: "As I have written before, they assume that the 'downtrodden negro' must not only be placed on an equality, but must have rights which they do not concede to his former master. The negro violates his contract with impunity; the white is held to the very letter of it. The ex parte testimony of the negro is accepted; the testimony of the white must be corroborated. MORAL ASPECTS OF THE REED CASE.

From the day on which Jacob Crouse met his fate until the present hour, we have not published a single line in regard to the unfortunate affair which resulted in the death of that miserable man, saving only a statement of the facts connected with the killing and a report of the proceedings in the trial of John P. Reed, Jr. We studiously refrained from defending the course of Mr. Reed and carefully avoided the expression of any opinion as to his guilt or innocence of the crime with which he was indicted. Our silence in this regard was owing solely to our desire that the law should have its course unobstructed by any possible impediment which our discussion of the case might throw in its way. For this reason our columns did not respond to the foul slanders repeatedly uttered in regard to the Reeds, and for this reason alone, we permitted the base libel upon our own character, "THE BEDFORD GAZETTE murdered Jacob Crouse," to go uncontradicted and unrebuked. But, the law has had its course and we can now speak without fear of defeating the ends of justice. Our slanderers have had their say; let them not complain now that we shall have ours.

The most conspicuous part borne in the trial of young Reed, was that taken by John Cessna, Esq., one of the counsel for the prosecution. From the time of the killing until the moment of acquittal, like a blood-hound in pursuit of his quarry, he was upon the track of the Reeds. When the fatal shot was fired, the crack of the pistol brought him in "at the death," and after young Reed had surrendered himself to the sheriff, he marched to the jail at the head of a mob, and with the froth of his malignant heart boiling over at his mouth, yelled like an incarnate devil, "Hang him! hang him!" When the Coroner's inquest was held upon the body of Crouse, he went before the jury as counsel and harangued them in favor of the finding he desired, a proceeding without parallel in all the annals of jurisprudence. When the case came up at September sessions, he resorted to all the expedients of the pettifogger's trickery, to obtain a continuance; moving to quash the array of jurors, though the jury had been drawn in the same manner in a hundred previous capital cases; and finally swearing the case off by making an affidavit to the absence of important witnesses. And just here, let us look at this affidavit of Mr. Cessna. We find him swearing that "John Williams," "——Howsare," "Mrs. M. S. Hoke," "Wm. J. Campbell, "Lizzie Long and Lizzie Gordon" were "material to a trial of the case." Upon this oath of Mr. Cessna, the Court continued the trial to November sessions. Now, not one of these witnesses, except John Williams, did Mr. Cessna produce at the trial, last week, though he had three months time in which to have them brought here. We are informed that when Cessna made his oath, John Williams was not far away, and that he appeared and testified before the Grand Jury at September sessions. Wm. J. Campbell was in attendance at the trial, last week, but this important witness was not even called to the stand by Mr. Cessna. Why Mrs. Hoke, —— Howsare and the two Lizzies were not forthcoming, is, doubtless, best known to the "affiant" who swore that their testimony was "material to a trial of the case." But, the blackest page in all the dark history of this man Cessna's connection with this Reed case, is yet to be written. Contempt for the meanness of the fellow's malignity and pity for those who must share his shame, almost constrain us to forbear. Yet, why should we hesitate to tell the truth concerning a creature, who fain would blacken and blast the reputation of others with falsehood? Had all the evidence offered by the defence, been admitted by the Court, the criminality of poor Crouse would have been considerably relieved by the revelation of the fact that he believed, that as an officer, he had the right to kill John P. Reed, Jr. What gave Crouse this false and bloody notion? Let us see. We quote from the bill of exceptions sealed by the Court to the counsel for the defence:

"The counsel for the defence offer to prove that Crouse said he would kill Reed, if ever he returned to Bedford; that he had authority to kill him; that he was not acting blindly, but that JOHN CESSNA had told him that he would not be hurt if he killed him.—Counsel for Commonwealth object; objections sustained by the Court and bill of exceptions sealed."

The evidence which the defence intended to produce under this proposition, was that of some five witnesses, all respectable and worthy men, who were ready to swear that Crouse, at various times, in October, 1864, and at later periods, declared that he would kill Reed if he ever returned, and when counseled not to do so, that he would say, "I know what I am doing; I am not acting blindly; I have a right to kill him;" and at least one of these witnesses would have sworn that Crouse said to him that JOHN CESSNA had told him that he could kill the Reed boys and he couldn't be hurt for it.—We will give the testimony of this witness as taken down by counsel for the defence, at a private examination of witnesses. It is as follows:

"After the election last fall (1864) I was talking to John P. Reed, Sr., on business near his office; Jacob Crouse passed, while we were talking, towards the Washington Hotel; I afterwards met Crouse, on the same day. He asked me what Reed had said about him. I told him he had not said anything; that we were talking about business. He said he believed Reed had said something about him, that he was not pleased with him, that he had heard some of the threats that he (Crouse) had made about his boys. He said he had threatened to kill them, and that he would kill them yet. I told him he should not do so; that he might get into hoculties. He said, no, he wouldn't; that he never went into anything blindly; that JOHN CESSNA had told him he had a right to kill him, as an officer, and that he couldn't, or shouldn't be hurt; and he said if he (John P. Reed, Jr.) ever came back he would kill him."

This statement needs no interpretation; it speaks for itself.

And, now, what shall be said of the lawyer who heads a mob, and, foaming at the mouth like a madman, demands that a prisoner shall be lynched; who goes before a Coroner's jury to plead for a verdict; who moves for a postponement of a trial, upon his own oath, that witnesses material to the issue, are absent, which witnesses, though within his reach, he subsequently fails to produce; who advises as Jacob Crouse declared he was advised? What shall be said of the politician who goes over the State, traducing his neighbors by statements that they murdered provost marshals; making capital out of the blood of the man who declared that this mountebank had guarantied him impunity, if he killed Reed; electioneering at the expense of the reputation of a man whose guilt, or innocence, was yet to be established? Nay, more.—What is to be thought (for tongue cannot utter a just description of such infamy) of the Christian who sits in the pew just behind you, taking the sacramental wine from the same cup in which you drink spiritual fellowship with him, and who, nevertheless, finds it in his heart to demand your blood, even though he does it in the garb of his profession? What a libel upon the legal profession! What a disgrace to the political arena! What a shame to the church of the meek and lowly Jesus! The pettifogger, the mountebank and the hypocrite all combined in one nature; who shall describe the ineffable meanness, the contemptible trickery, the unutterable baseness of a compound so vile as this?

LIBELS PROVED.

Time sets all things even. The unparallelled mendacity of the Bedford Inquirer in regard to the Crouse homicide, has at last received a fitting rebuke, nay, has been branded by a sworn jury of the best men in the county, as a libellous falsehood. Time after time that sheet published in glaring letters, this charge: "The Bedford Gazette murdered Jacob Crouse!" Time after time this base lie was made the ground of an appeal to the credulous, against the GAZETTE and the Democratic party. Now, people can see how they were duped. It was proved on the trial of J. P. Reed, Jr., by eleven witnesses, and the jury so decided, that Crouse WAS NOT MURDERED AT ALL, but was shot whilst in the act of trying to kill Reed with a stone. It was proved by these eleven witnesses that Crouse attacked Reed and injured him severely whilst he was retreating from Crouse. The writers for the Inquirer knew this all the while, yet they persisted in saying that Crouse was shot because he was a sort of provost-marshal, the BEDFORD GAZETTE having declared that any person accepting that office "could not live a peaceful life, nor die an honorable death." Now, eleven witnesses having sworn in open court, that Crouse attacked Reed (and therefore courted death) and a jury under solemn oath having found that Crouse was not murdered, (neither because he was provost-marshal, nor because of the language of the GAZETTE applied to provost-marshals generally) but was killed by Mr. Reed, in self-defence, therefore, the Bedford Inquirer has been virtually convicted of libel in saying "that the BEDFORD GAZETTE murdered Jacob Crouse." Yet, more. The Inquirer published an account of the killing of Crouse, which clearly conveyed the idea that John P. Reed, Jr., was guilty of murder. It declared repeatedly that Crouse was shot because he was provost-marshal, thus attributing malice to Reed, and plainly charging him with murder in the first degree. It assailed young Reed's character in the most shameful manner and demanded that he should be chained in his prison cell, like any common felon. But now all this malignity on its part, so long apparent to unbiased minds, is laid open to the sight of all. Eleven witnesses have sworn that the Inquirer LIED, and the verdict of twelve jurors, under oath, brands it GUILTY OF LIBEL upon John P. Reed, Jr. Such is the character of that sheet, proved in a court of justice. Can people be any longer misled by its statements? Can its readers afford to risk their own reputation for truth, by repeating what they see in its columns? Are its political friends to be shamed in the future, as they now are, by its falsehoods? If yes, then it does not matter in this country how great a liar one may be, provided he belongs to the Abolition party.

CAN YOU DO IT?

We ask the blood-hounds in human shape who have been hunting down John P. Reed, Jr., who among them can show as good a character before a jury as he did? Can Mr. Cessna? Can any of the men who counseled Crouse to pursue, insult, and attack the Reeds? John P. Reed never stirred up strife among his neighbors; never indulged in drunken brawls; never associated with rowdies; nor did he ever, according to common report, furnish a railroad pass to a reputed strumpet and travel with her to Philadelphia. Let his persecutors produce such testimony to their character, as the following, if they can, (we quote from the report of the trial):

The following gentlemen were then sworn and testified that the character of defendant, John P. Reed, Jr., for peace, good order and propriety, was always good:

Rev H Heckerman,	Major Rupp,

P. FRAZER SMITH, Esq., of West Chester, was of counsel for the Commonwealth in the Crouse homicide case, having been retained as such by Mr. Cessna, who, it seems, assumed the management of the case on the part of the prosecution. We know Mr. Smith well, having had the good (or ill) fortune to serve some five months with him in the Legislature. Although a political opponent, we generally found him courteous in his opposition and a gentleman in every respect. We are only sorry that he should have permitted the demagogue Cessna to lug him into this case for the purpose of shielding himself from the odium of a defeat which he knew to be inevitable. Mr. Smith is too good a lawyer to have risked his reputation as a cat's-paw in the hands of John Cessna. According to the statement of the latter he had invited about a dozen of lawyers to take the position Mr. Smith was prevailed upon to assume, before he addressed himself to that gentleman. Among that number was Thaddeus Stevens, who declined because he preferred to remain within the line of professional honor and to follow the good old rule of the true barrister, never to take blood-money. We doubt not that Mr. Smith was deceived in regard to the nature of the case, for Cessna had his own tale about it, and boasted on the cars that the attorneys for the defence did not comprehend it. But whatever inducements operated to bring Mr. Smith into the case, we are bound to say that in the trial and during his stay in our midst, he deported himself, in all respects, like a gentleman.

THE Franklin Repository talked very glibly of the murder of Jacob Crouse, some time ago, commenting with unnecessary severity upon the course of John P. Reed, jr. Will that paper do justice to Mr. Reed by informing its readers that eleven witnesses swore in open Court that Crouse attacked Reed, whilst the latter was retreating from him, striking him (Reed) with a large stone, and being about to strike him again with another stone when Reed fired? also, that the jury decided that there was neither murder nor manslaughter of Jacob Crouse? The Repository might likewise do justice to the christian virtues of its friend Cessna, by saying that the counsel for Mr. Reed offered to prove (but were prevented by the ruling of the Court) that Crouse declared that John Cessna had assured him that he could kill the Reeds with impunity.

WE ask the readers of the GAZETTE to refer to our issue of August 4, 1865, and compare our account of the Crouse tragedy published in that number of our paper, with the testimony in the trial of John P. Reed, Jr., published last week. Then, we would, also, ask the readers of the Inquirer to make a comparison of the account of the same, published in their paper of same date, with the testimony as reported. Let the readers of the two papers decide which did tell the truth concerning the killing of Jacob Crouse.

THE Franklin Repository, of this week, has an article on the subject of the Reed case, in which it says that "Mr. Reed was confessedly disloyal," and that "he had no sympathy with the government which guaranteed him all his civil, religious and political rights, but, on the contrary, notoriously sympathized with its murderous foes." Was this proved upon the trial of Mr. Reed? Was there any effort made by the prosecution to introduce testimony to such effect? Not a bit of it. Did Mr. Reed ever confess himself "disloyal?" If so, has it been proved when and where he became "confessedly" so? No, never! How, then, does the Repository come to have so certain knowledge concerning Mr. Reed's "disloyalty?" Of course, that journal will respond, "Mr. Reed fled to Canada!" Granting, for the sake of argument, that he did, the Repository ought to be aware (as it seems to have pried into Mr. Reed's private affairs so carefully and diligently) that he went to Canada long before the Conscription act was passed, that when he left his home he did so in the open light of day, announcing to all his acquaintance that he intended to study law in an office in Toronto, and that, therefore, he did not flee to avoid meeting rebel bayonets, a la the immortal hero of "Rutherford's Lane." It is true that after a residence of some years in Canada, Mr. Reed was drafted under the Conscription act. He obeyed the law to its very letter, by paying commutation, just as did Col. McClure when that worthy received an invitation to fight for his country. Why, then, should the Repository thus assail Mr. Reed? Had it not better, to use a homely adage, "sweep before its own door?" For wherein is the difference between one who goes to Canada, to keep out of harm's way, and a periodical "skedaddler," who scents the battle afar off, and leaving his friends and neighbors in the lurch, runs just far enough away "to save his own bacon?" But we cannot believe that Col. McClure is the author of the article in question. It is beneath the standard of a gentleman. Yet, be the author who he may, let him not concern himself as to the conscience of Mr. Reed. A creature whose heart is filled with such malignity as is exhibited in that article, will have enough to do to smother in his own breast, "the worm that dieth not and the fire that is not quenched." Let him remember that "each of us carries his own hide to market," and if his is not as thick as that of the rhinoceros, he will feel the force of this injunction.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON, it is announced, will soon restore the habeas corpus. Why not? Even the Abolitionists claimed that the suspension of that great writ of right was demanded only in time of war and actual danger to the government. What is the matter now, that we must still be deprived of this ancient and blood-bought privilege? Hasn't the war been "fought out," and isn't the "rebellion crushed?" "Yes, but the Union is not yet restored," says some "Republican." Oh! we had thought it was. Surely you told us that all that was wanting to restore the Union, was to whip the South. That has been done. What is lacking now?

ALL HAIL MINNESOTA! The Democrats have either carried this State, or come so near carrying it, that there is no fun in it for the Abolitionists. At last accounts the Abolition candidate for Governor led his Democratic competitor only 265 votes! The "negro suffrage" amendment was defeated by a large majority. Last year Lincoln carried this State by about 10,000. Well done, Minnesota!

No wonder the Abolitionists carried the State. It now turns out that 61,000 Democrats who voted last fall, did not turn out to the election, or were disfranchised by Abolition boards. Had these votes been polled, our majority in the State, would have been 40,000. Hence, let Democrats organize in such manner as will enable us, next year, to poll our full vote.

TAX on breadstuffs is the last wrinkle in the horn that is goring the sides of the people. The Assessors of Internal Revenue are now engaged in notifying all manufacturers of flour, that 63 cents tax will be assessed upon every barrel of this necessary of life they produce. Who pays this tax? The consumer, of course. If things keep on at this rate, how are poor people to earn their bread?

WM. KENNEDY, Esq., has retired from the editorship of the Shippensburg Valley Sentinel. It is, we believe, Mr. Kennedy's intention to become one of the proprietors of a new Democratic paper in Carlisle. Success attend him.

EDITORIAL VISITOR.—We had the pleasure, on Thursday morning last, of a call from Brother TRAUGH, of the Hollidaysburg Standard, who, with some friends, was on a flying visit to our borough. Vive le good-looking editor of the "gay and incomparable" Standard!

THE Pottsville Standard has been greatly enlarged and improved. It is an able exponent of Democratic principles. We wish the enterprising publisher much success.

THE Abolition papers publish a pyramid of States carried by their party recently. They forget to add JAMAICA!

SCHOOL REFORM---NO. 4.

CLASSIFICATION—A WORD TO TEACHERS.—Our common schools can never reach their full measure of usefulness, without thorough classification. Nothing is so necessary to their success; yet, nothing has been so much neglected. This neglect, up to the present time, has been mainly the fault of directors. Teachers were powerless. The variety of books used made classification impossible. Now, however, Osgood's Spellers and Readers, Brooks' Arithmetics, Mitchell's Geographys, and Brown's Grammars, are adopted in nearly all our districts, and their exclusive use will be enforced as soon as the schools begin. The schools (except in a few districts where directors, in defiance of law, still refuse to establish uniformity) can now be classified, and, if they are not, it will be mainly the fault of the teachers.

The classification of a school requires skill and firmness. The task is both delicate and difficult; and many fail in its performance. If the teacher lacks judgment and knowledge of human nature, we can say but little here, that will aid him. He must read works on teaching, and study the subject as he finds it in the practical details of the school-room. Even when he knows what should be done, and how he should proceed, his task will not be without difficulties. Parents will refuse or neglect to get books for their children; or they will buy without consulting the teacher, and thus frequently get the wrong kind. In this way books by the wrong author, or of too high a grade, have been put into the schools. It is true they have sometimes been bought by the stupid advice of the teacher himself; but they have generally come into the school without his knowledge, and contrary to his wishes. Once introduced, they can not be got rid of. Classes are multiplied and the teacher's time is wasted. Pupils can not get along because they are using books too difficult for their compensation, and the school is interfered with and injured in every way, for many years, perhaps, by what at first seemed a trifling and unimportant event.

Three fourths of the pupils in the county are using higher readers than they require. They use the Second instead of the First, the Third instead of the Second, the Fourth instead of the Third, and the Fifth instead of the Fourth. Nearly all are a step too high for their age and capacity. Nor are all content with being one step too high. Some are two and even three steps: that is, some who are only capable of using the Second reader, actually use the Fourth or Fifth. A pupil who is using the proper reader, can hardly be found. Almost every school has a class in the Fifth Reader; when, in truth, there should not be a dozen such classes in in the county. We have no use for them, and they should never be formed unless there are too many in the Fourth Reader for one class. The Fourth, if properly used, contains enough to make first rate readers, and far more than our pupils will ever learn in the common schools.

What has been said of Reading, is also true of other branches. There seems to be a kind of mania for big books. Pupils begin the study of Mental Arithmetic with the advanced work instead of the primary. Dozens are studying Greenleaf's "National" who will never comprehend half that is in his "common school." Pupils begin Grammar with the biggest book they can buy. Mitchell's Geographys are used and nearly all have his large Geography and Atlas—the largest and most comprehensive work, probably, that has ever been used as a text-book, in this country. There should not be one of them in the county. No one ever learns half that it contains.

It is time that we put a stop to these evils; and the present is probably the most favorable time to do this, that we shall have for several years to come. New books are being introduced, and care should be taken that each pupil gets such as are exactly suited to his age and capacity. Of the new readers introduced, very few, indeed, require anything higher than the Fourth. Of the Geographys, the "Primary" and "Intermediate" are all that we need. Of the Grammars, few require more than the First Lines. The Institutes should be introduced, only where there are good classes, and there are at present, few really good Grammar classes in the county. Of the Arithmetics, a few will need the Intellectual and the Common School, but far the greater number will do better to study the Primary Mental and the Primary Written.

J. W. DICKERSON,
Co. Sup't.

A New Bedford paper gives a list of forty-six American whaling vessels, with ten thousand two hundred and fifty two barrels of oil, destroyed by rebel pirates during the late war. The value of the vessels is estimated at one million one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the oil at half a million dollars.

A getleman from Appomattox Court House, Virginia, states that there is nothing left of the apple tree under which General Lee surrendered but a red hole in the ground, and it is feared that unless the hole is fenced in that it also will be removed by curiosity seekers.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN VICTORY!

Bring Out The 1000-Pounder!!

What was the matter with our neighbor of the negro organ last week? Why didn't he parade the picture of that wonderful specimen of spontaneous combustion, the 1000-pounder cannon? Why didn't he come out in large job type, in flaring capitals? Didn't he know that there had been another great Black Republican victory? that his ideals of perfect men, the negroes of Jamaica, 300,000 strong, had risen up against the whites, some 10,000 in number, and massacred a great many of them? If so, why didn't he rejoice?

It is likely that he postponed his rejoicing until this week, hoping, that more of the good news would come in. If so, he will be wofully disappointed. For lo, the tidings come that the rebellion of the 300,000 brave, intelligent, humane darkies of Jamaica has been summarily and ignominiously suppressed by a few hundreds of white men, and the once negro-worshipping British officials are hanging the niggers at the rate of over 1,000 in a single parish!

Alas! for the negro organ, and alas! for its idol, for the nigger has acted upon the "idea" which the abolition press and speakers have for years endeavored to pound into his thick head, viz: the extermination of the white race, and the experiment has ended in a miserable fizzle. Where was negro chivalry, when whites were massacred by three hundred times their own number?

Let the Jamaica insurrection teach the Abolitionists the lesson they must learn ere long, viz: that the negro is inferior to the white man in everything but that which is purely animal, and that he is not to be trusted either as a citizen or a soldier.—Pottsville Standard.

Fenian Headquarters.

The Fenians have recently purchased or leased, the residence owned by the celebrated patent medicine man, Moffat, in 17th street, New York, for the "head quarters" of the "Irish republic." It is a five-story brown house, ornamented, inside and out, in a most elaborate manner. Frescoes, carvings, paintings, sheilds, coat-of-arms, rosewood, ebony and black walnut, stained windows and costly doors abound.

On the first floor the "financial operations" are carried on, where moneys are received, bonds issued, and the treasury department of the republic conducted. On the same floor is the reception room and the "library," with maps made from the last Fenian survey of Ireland, and, for aught we know, the lives of St. Patrick, Smith O'Brien, and Colonel O'Mahoney. The president has his office and private room on the second floor. Another suite is allotted to the secretary of military board of examination and a secretary of matters civil are also to operate on this floor. The hall, offices, and committee rooms of the Brotherhood senate occupy the third floor. Here, probably, the uneasy consciences of our Canada neighbors, who are reaping thistles from the figs they planted at St. Albans, imagine are planned and projected those fearful raids which keep the youthful Kanucks in arms all night, and make "pursy" bank directors curse Coursol and his decisions. Whether they be right or not, we have no means of knowing, but it requires neither a clear conscience nor a very clear head to conclude that however much the old women, of both sexes in Canada, may suffer, the "Irish republic" will probably flourish in spite of them.—Pittsburg Post.

IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN—BUT WASN'T.—A shoddy exchange gives the following figures of the vote of 1861 and 1865. Lincoln, 296,389; Hartranft, 237,816—Shoddy loss, 58,573. McClellan, 276,308; Davis, 215,292—Democratic loss, 61,016. Assuming these figures to be correct, they show that about sixty thousand Democrats, who voted in 1864, neglected to vote in 1865. Is this not too bad? After gallantly keeping up our organization during four years of the most trying and villainous persecution and misrepresentation ever endured by any party, and after bravely combatting the pampered and gorged hordes of Shoddy at every previous poll, thus to be beaten by our own inaction and apathy, when the field was clear and victory within our grasp, is little less than ignominious. Just think what a different state of affairs would have been presented, had every Democrat performed his duty and cast his vote as in 1864. Forty thousand, at least would have been our majority! We can't dwell upon this mortifying theme—Patriot & Union.

DOG FORNEY!—Poor Dog Forney has a great dread of Mr. Buchanan's Book, now in the hands of the publishers. It seems to the poor dog as though his flood of slander and lies would not be able to prevail against the pure and uncorrupted sage of Wheatland. There is no man living who can deny that Mr. Buchanan is pure, honest and truthful. Who could say that the miserable turncoat Forney is either? Every man knows that he left the Democratic party, and went over among the Disunionists of the Seward, Chase and Greeley school for plunder and nothing else. Let the poor cur whine! Buchanan's virtues will shine long after he and many another equally miserable dog has had his day!—Northumberland Democrat.

"A BIRTH AT THE WHITE HOUSE"

The following occurs in Col. M'Clure's "Hour with the President:"

"Soon the door opened and a genteel lady emerged from the President's room with a large official envelope clutched nervously in her hand, and a benignity of countenance that told more plainly than words that another citizen had been born again to the Republic."

The Greensburg Democrat prints the above and adds that "the incident is remarkable, not only because of the queer uses to which the White House appears to have been devoted, but the extraordinary recuperative powers of the lady in question."

The Bedford Trial---Acquittal of John P. Reed, Jr.

The telegraph announces the fact that John P. Reed, Jr., of Bedford, was acquitted on Saturday of the charge of having murdered one Crouse. The plea set up in his behalf was that the shooting was done in self defence, and from what we know of the case, we have no doubt it was completely made out. The case is one of those unfortunate ones springing out of political animosities.—The man who was killed had made several assaults upon John P. Reed, Jr., and upon his younger brother, a weak and defenceless youth. At the time the shooting occurred, Crouse made an assault upon John P. Reed, Jr., struck him with a stone; knocking him down, and was advancing with another stone in his hand, when Reed drew a pistol, shot him, and killed him almost instantly. The jury have pronounced the act justifiable, as done in self defence. We hope the time will soon come when past political animosities will have been forgotten. It is said that Crouse was urged on to his acts of violence by outside parties in Bedford. If this be so, they were the most culpable.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

Continuation of Indian Depredations.

[Correspondence of the Chicago Times.]

FORT LARAMIE, Dacotah Territory, Nov. 6.—For 100 miles on each side of Fort Sedgwick (Julesburg) there have been fatal encounters, almost every day, between Indians and travellers. Last week a band of delegates to General Sanborn's peace convention, on the Republican, attacked a train near Alkali station, ham-strung the oxen, chained them and two men to the wagons, and burned the whole outfit. A few days previous another party attacked a government train a short distance above Sedgwick, and after a fierce fight of four hours, fell back, leaving sixteen of their dead behind. A vegetable train en route from Camp Collins to this place, was captured a few days ago, so that we shall probably have a scarcity in the market the coming winter. At present potatoes sell for 35 cents a pound; cabbage, $2 50 a head; green apples, $1 a pound, and everything else in that line in like proportion.

But the boldest move on the part of the Indians took place day before yesterday, when a band of five attacked a government train, camped only half a mile from and in plain sight of the fort, and attempted to stampede the stock, but receiving a warm reception from two soldiers, who were hunting in the vicinity, they took to their heels after shooting six or seven head of cattle.

Their sudden dash was a piece of mere bravado. They were mounted on the best horses their tribe afforded, and had fresh ones following them; on these they would dash through a rocky cañon or over a porous prairie, where it was difficult for us to follow, even when dismounted and leading our horses.

The Indians were so much broken up by Gen. Conner's campaign that they failed to provide for the winter, and now they are crossing the Platte on their way down to the Republican, where the buffalo are plenty through the winter season. This movement accounts for the present hostilities on the Platte road.

Terrible Steamboat Disaster on the Mississippi---One Hundred Lives Lost.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 25.—A Collision occurred last night between the Niagara and Post Boy, on the Mississippi, seven miles above Helena. The Niagara sank in twenty feet of water. One hundred deck passengers, mostly discharged negro soldiers, were drowned. The cabin passengers and crew were all saved. The Niagara was valued at $130,000, and was uninsured. Two hundred and fifty tons of freight on the Post Boy was uninjured.

Habeas Corpus to be Restored.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—President Johnson expressed this morning to a friend his intention to restore the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus at the earliest possible time, and to do away with the secret detective service.

GOVERNOR Parsons has returned to Alabama with two hundred pardons for citizens of that State.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—A Druggist said the other day, you have no need to advertise your Porous Plasters, for every one sold certainly causes a dozen to be sold, and a dozen sells a gross, and so on. You will not be able to supply the demand soon. But we can supply a thousand yards a day.

AFFECTION OF THE SPINE CURED.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 11, 1865.

Messrs. Thos. ALLCOCK & Co.—Please send with dispatch, twelve dozen Allcock's Porous Plasters. Our daily experience confirms their very superior excellence. At this moment of writing, a man applies for one, who, by entanglement in the shaft of machinery, had both his legs broken, spine severely injured, and was for nearly a year entirely helpless. This man found relief very soon by the application of a plaster to his spine. He was soon enabled to work, and now he labors as well as ever. He would cheerfully pay $5 for a single plaster if they could not be had at a lower rate. I am surprised that surgeons do not make use of these perforated plasters, to the exclusion of all others, as their flexibility and adhesiveness are greatly in advance of all other plasters with which I am acquainted; while the perforations peculiar to them rendered them greatly superior to all others for ordinary surgical uses. Knowing the Plasters to be so useful, I have no scruples that my sentiments should be known. J. W. JOHNSON, M D

KEYSTONE CLUB.

The regular monthly meeting of the Club will be held in the Grand Jury Room, in the Court House, on Saturday evening next, December 2. A full turn out of the members and of the Democrats of the borough and vicinity, is respectfully requested.

JOB MANN, President.

FAREWELL SERMON OF REV. MR. BARROW.—The many friends of the Rev. A. J. Barrow will regret to learn that he intends moving from our midst to a new field of labor. The esteemed Rev. gentleman will preach his farewell sermon at Ridge Road Episcopal church to-morrow evening, and the coming week he will leave for Bedford, Pa., which will be his home in the future. Mr. Barrow will also officiate at Huntingdon, Pa., the second Monday of each month. During Mr. Barrow's stay in our midst, he has made hosts of friends, who will be pained to part with him. We hope he will find his new home a pleasant one, and we would congratulate the good people of Bedford in their fortunate choice in a Minister of Mr. Barrow's ability, education and eloquence.

The above notice we copy from a Harrisburg paper of last week. Mr. Barrow, in future, is to take charge, as pastor, of the Parish of St. James, Bedford, and of St. John's, Huntingdon. Preaching one Sunday of each month in Huntingdon, the remaining time in Bedford. Arrangements, we are told, are being made for the speedy erection of a suitable church edifice, and in the meantime regular services will be held, the place for which will beduly announced. The first regular service will be held in the Ev. Lutheran Church, on Sunday next, at 3 o'clock, P. M., when further arrangements will be made known.

THE NEW CONSOLIDATED BUSINESS DIRECTORY OF NEW YORK, BOSTON AND PHILADELPHIA.—Most conclusive evidence of the popularity of this new enterprise of Messrs. Baldwin & Co., of 64 Cedar Street, New York, is the already large and rapidly increasing subscription list, they having secured the unprecedented circulation of nearly ten thousand copies in the short space of six weeks. A work of this character is much needed, representing, as it is intended, the vast business interests of the largest commercial marts in the United States, consolidated in one volume. Its utility to business men cannot be over-estimated. To merchants generally throughout the United States and Canadas, doing business with New York, Boston or Philadelphia, as a handbook of reference it will be of incalculable value. We are heartily glad to see the publishers meeting with the success their enterprise properly deserves. As an advertising medium it commends itself to merchants and manufacturers; its circulation, confined as it will be to business houses, must be productive of good to its patrons. We see that the business men of Philadelphia and Boston have taken hold of the matter with the proper spirit, and are determined that the Empire City shall not not be ahead of them in their display of the commercial resources of their respective cities. The subscription price of the Consolidated Business Directory is five dollars per copy, quarto size, handsomely printed and bound in cloth, gold embossed. Altogether it will be a fine specimen of typographical skill.—N. Y. Express, Sept. 26.

We most cheerfully call the attention of our merchants to the above work, every one of whom should have a copy of it. As an inducement for them to subscribe for it, the publishers will insert in the Business Register connected therewith, the Name, Business and Address of every subscriber. Those who do not want the Directory can have their Name, Business and Address in the work upon the payment of One Dollar. The Consolidated Business Directory is highly endorsed by the Daily Press of New York, Boston and Philadelphia. Send in your subscriptions. Five Dollars per copy, to Messrs. H. A. Baldwin & Co., 64 Cedar St., New York.

MORE COUNTERFEIT CURRENCY.—An excellent imitation of the fifty-cent fractional currency has just been detected at the Treasury Department. It is considered the best executed counterfeit yet put in circulation. It can, however, be very easily distinguished from the original by the coloring, and in the signature of Gen. Spinner, the last E having been omitted.

The Secretary has decided to alter the general appearance of the present issue of fractional currency, in order to make it uniform and to better protect it from counterfeiting. In future all new issues will be of the greenback circulation.

BUTTER.—The price of butter and the scarcity of the article are such that many families will soon be compelled to do without this luxury, for luxury it must be, at present, considered. Impressed with this idea, some practical genius has got off the following parody:

See the kine so sleek and hairy,
Calmly chewing at their cud;
Pasture green around them growing,
And gad flies buzzing in the wood;
Tell them that you'd know their answer,
As you question every cow—
"Muley, tell me, tell me truly,
Who will pay for butter now?"

CHORUS—Around the markets I am marching,
Asking who will tell me how,
In the name of all that's fearful,
We can pay for butter now?

The farmers tell us, to our sorrow,
That cows are very dry this year,
But who can comfort from this borrow,
While butter's so extremely dear?
Should you offer them but thirty,
They'd kick up a precious row,
So I insist on loudly bawling—
Who can pay for butter now!

CHORUS—Around the markets I am marching,
Asking who will tell me how,
In the name of all that's dreadful
We can pay for butter now?

CHANGE OF WEATHER.—The soft and balmy airs of Indian Summer, have given place to cold and chilling blasts and murky, gloomy skies. The weather, so fine for weeks, has suddenly changed, transporting us in a single day from the pleasant embrace of lingering Autumn, to the presence of stern and icy Winter. The suddenness of the change of atmosphere, is one of the draw-backs to the healthfulness of our climate. Influenza and its kindred diseases are thus produced, and too much care cannot be taken to prevent their attacks. At this season of the year, all unnecessary exposure should, if possible, be avoided. Especially should the comfort of children and persons of weak constitutions, be looked to. We make these suggestions for the benefit of all who may choose to profit by them.

THE HIGH PRICE OF PAPER.—Paper has risen almost one hundred per cent. since the first of August, and is now quite as high as it was at any time last year, and the tendency is still onward and upward. There is little prospect for relief before next spring. Paper, ink, labor, and all the materials which go to make a newspaper are so high, that no proprietor can afford to publish a paper for less than double the price received before the war. Still, people complain because the prices are not reduced, never thinking that the matter is entirely beyond the control of publishers.—Westminster Sentinel.

WE understand that the "Family Record" which is becoming so popular everywhere, is published only in Philadelphia, and that any person publishing the work elsewhere, will do so illegally. The publishers, Bartleson & Co., inform us through their agent, Mr. R. W. Berkstresser, that they will prosecute such to the full extent of the law. The book is copyrighted.

NATURE'S rarest floral perfume has been caught and caged in glass. In a bottle of Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus" is concentrated all that fancy can conceive of refreshing and exhilarating fragrance. Sold everywhere. [3

IS IT NOT SO? If you have a wife and children is it not a pleasant thought that you will hand down to future generations a complete description and a perfect record, with likenesses of yourself and them? This is the reflection that those persons enjoy who have secured a "Photograph Family Record."

KEYSTONE CLUB.—The regular monthly meeting of the Club will be held on Saturday evening next. We hope Democrats will make it a point to turn out at the ringing of the bell.

WE call attention to the advertisement of Mrs. Maria Schell, who offers for sale House and Lot, on which she formerly resided, in Schellsburg.

THE HOME JOURNAL for 1866.

A high-toned and brilliant Literary and Artistic Journal.

NEW VOLUME—NEW ATTRACTIONS.

Established in 1846, THE HOME JOURNAL, (on the sixth of January next,) for the twentieth year, greets its old friends and subscribers.

It is still conducted by N. P. WILLIS, assisted by an efficient corps of able editors, talented contributors, and spicy correspondents.

Mr. WILLIS, while maintaining his allowed very able topic, The Chronicle of Gayety and Fashion, thinks he has succeeded in establishing a separate best authority for all that concerns the livelier progress of women.

As the voice of this new want of society, the Home Journal claims to be the indispensible first need of the ladies. One of the features of the new series will be the publication of a new and beautiful story, by ALPHONSE DE LAMARTINE, entitled FIOR D'ALIZA: An Idyll of Italian Life, which is pronounced by eminent European critics, "the 'Paul and Virginia' of the nineteenth century," and which is being translated for our columns by GEORGE PERRY. This will run through about ten numbers. In the first number of the coming volume will be commenced an entire NEW SERIES of articles, entitled MATRIMONIAL INFELICITIES, by the well-known and popular humorous writer, BARRY GRAY, author of "Married Life," etc., etc. As a part of our plan to keep our readers au fait of the living literature of the world, and serve up for their cosmopolitan taste choice condensations from living writers of every country, we have enlisted the service of some able writers to translate BRIEF ROMANCES from the French, German and Russian current literature.

But romance will be only a subordinate department; while a prominent feature of the new volume will be Original and Sparkling Sketches of character, persons and places.

The author of "Ashes from the Pipe of an Old Smoker;" "Daisy Howard;" "The Dreamer," and other favorite essayists, will figure under this head. In Foreign Correspondence the coming volume will be especially brilliant. Among other writers, MRS. ESTELLE ANNA LEWIS, the poetess, and HARRY HAREWOOD LEECH, the essayist, (both now residing abroad,) will act as special correspondents, jotting down for our readers everything that is new and interesting in the world of letters, art, fashion and society. The AMUSEMENT DEPARTMENT is under the charge of H. A. DELILLIE, an accomplished critic, who will keep our readers well informed of all that is interesting, on both sides of the Atlantic, in matters Musical and Dramatic.

In Belles-Lettres, Poetry, Art-Criticism, Book Reviews, original essays, social, fashion and foreign gossip, spicy letters, short sketches, pithy paragraphs, personal items, early extracts from unpublished works, choice selections from English, French and other foreign periodicals, and all, in fact, that tends to make an instructive and entertaining newspaper, the Home Journal will still retain its reputation as the favorite of the belles lettres press.

It need hardly be mentioned that the editors are proud of the position assigned to the paper of being the unexceptionably cultivated reference of polite people: its high moral tone will always be observed, and nothing will be admitted into its columns that would not be compatible with a paper intended for the moral and refined home of the best classes.

We take this opportunity of thanking our many Southern subscribers for a return of their patronage, and can assure them that the editors will still keep the columns of the Home Journal free from political and religious discussions, and will confine themselves rather to their motto, to "Encourage the memorable, the progressive and the beautiful."

TERMS.—For one copy, one year, $3; for three copies, $7 50, or one copy for three years, $7 50 always in advance. Subscriptions, orders, remittances, and all other communications, to be addressed to the publishers, 1866. THE WORLD, An Independent Democratic Daily, Weekly & Semi-Weekly Newspaper.

After four years of civil war, forced upon the people of the United States by the violence of sectional parties, we now enter upon a new era of unity and of progress. North and South, a cordial co operation of all honest men is needed to repair the waste of war, to establish our Peace through the triumph of sound constitutional principles in the administration of the government, and our unity by guarding all that makes Union desirable.

The great Democratic Party, whose history in the past is the history of private prosperity, of territorial extension, and of public order in America, stands now, as it has ever stood, the Party of the nation, superior to all sectional passions in its loyalty to the rights of co-equal States and to the liberties of the individual citizen. Once more its voice will be heard, once more its adherents will be rallied to its time honored standards in every city and town of the Northern and of the Southern States.

To the principles of the great Democratic Party of the Naton, THE WORLD has borne firm witness throughout the ordeal of civil war. It will now be devoted to the not less arduous task of applying those principles to the solution of the many and weighty questions—financial, social, political—which come upon us with the return of peace. Faithful to the real interests of all sections, it will be enslaved by the prejudices and blinded by the prepossessions of none.

That the principles of American Democracy should thus be uttered, with no weak or uncertain voice, here in the great metropolitan center of American enterprise and commerce, is a matter of such impotance to every citizen as must recommend THE WORLD to the co-operation and support of good men in all sections of the Union.

Whatever skill can advise or enterprise accomplish will conribute to make THE WORLD what it is our resolve that it shall continue to be—the Best Newspaper o' the Day.

Competent correspondents at every commercial and political center of both hemispheres, who are always instructed to make the freest and promptest use of the telegraph, will keep our readers fully informed of the doings and the progress of mankind in all parts of the globe.

EDITIONS.

The Daily WORLD affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.

The Semi-Weekly WORLD is a large quarto sheet same size as Daily, containing all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.

The Weekly WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, has now the largest circulation of any weekly journal published save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York Argus has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivaled in interest and value to the farmers. Published Wednesday.

1. Its MARKET REPORTS embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge LIVE STOCK MARKETS; the New York COUNTRY PRODUCE and GENERAL PRODUCE MARKETS; special and valuable HOP INTELIGENCE; a department of AGRICULTURAL READING; all together composing an unrivaled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, the Country Merchant, etc.

2. Its READING FOR THE FAMILY CIRCLE embraces the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc.

3. Its DIGEST OF THE NEWS is not, like most city weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.

In every post-office district there should be found some active, public-spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by making a determined effort to form a club of four, ten, twenty, or fifty for the Weekly WORLD, at our greatly reduced rates.

FROM THE

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar., 10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies, and finishing with certificates.

The Science of Mddicine stands SIMPLE, PURE, and MAJESTIC,—having Fact for its Basis, Induction for its Pillar, Truth alone for its Capital.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.

SHRINERS BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP.
For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.

This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now before the public.

For coughs after measles this syrup is most excellent. Experience has proven that it is equalled by no other preparation

FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
HORSE AND CATTLE
POWDERS

THESE Powders have proved after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use The chief superiority of these powders arises from the fact that they are composed of medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties. The laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and lay the foundation for a vigorous and healthy circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal.

These powders are not intended, as most powders are, to bloat the animal, so as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but, to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them from offensive matter, and bring them to a healthy state. They are a sure preventive of Lung Fever, and a certain remedy for all diseases incident to the Horse, as Glanders, Yellow Water, Distempers, Founder, Heaves, Slaveiring, Coughs, Fevers, Loss of Appetite, and Vital Energy, &c —These Powders, if used two or three times a week, through the winter and spring, your horse will never get the Lung Fever, Colic or Botts. A few doses of these powders will remove the worst cough, on any horse. Were owners of horses to feed a few of these powders every year, they might save the lives of many valuable horses

MILCH COWS.

The properties this powder possesses in increasing the quantity of milk in cows, gives it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a cow. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

HOGS.

In all diseases of swine, as coughs, ulcers in the lungs and liver, &c., by putting from half a paper to a paper of these powders in a barrel of swill, the above diseases can be cured or entirely prevented. By using these powders the hog cholers can be prevented.

Prepared by S. A. FOUTZ,
Westminster, Md.
